2009 Lions District Convention

I'm sure Lion President Tom and Lion Chuck will give the club a briefing of all the goings on at the convention.

This was the first district convention for myself and Lion Lonnie... We got to walk around with a purple thingy on our name tags letting everyone know we were "first timers".

The one thing evident throughout the convention was seeing first hand how Lions have such camaraderie and diversity among themselves, as well as with other clubs, to achieve their goals for Lionism as a whole. This includes all Lions, Lionesses and Leos working unselfishly together towards a common goal.

Looks like we were a "shoo-in" to host next year's district bowling. We were unopposed.

Hopefully we'll have results of the elections in time for our next newsletter.
